COMMUNITY WORK REPORT

Volunteering in Community Work engages students directly with a community, it allows for a special bond with those people or organizations being served. Community service for students increases social awareness and responsibility as well. Committing to a project or activity with others helps build and strengthen relationships and make new friendships. Our social, professional, and support network is bound to grow, introducing students to so many new people who care about the same things as us as a community.

Objectives

The specific objectives of Community Service in B.Ed curriculum are:

- To sensitize the student to the living conditions of the people who are around them.
- To help students realize the stark realities of society.
- To bring about an attitudinal change in the students and help them to develop societal consciousness, sensibility, responsibility, and accountability.
- To make students aware of their inner strength and help them to find new /out-of-the-box solutions to social problems.
- To make students socially responsible citizens who are sensitive to the needs of the disadvantaged sections.
- To help students to initiate developmental activities in the community in coordination with public and government authorities.
- To develop a holistic life perspective among the students by making them study culture, traditions, habits, lifestyles, resource utilization, wastages and its management, social problems, public administration system, and the roles and responsibilities of different persons across different social systems
