Report on Workshop on Inclusive Education

Organized by ADAPT (Able Disable All People Together) In collaboration with Humera Khan College of Education

❖ Objective:

- To understand the principles and practices of inclusive education.
- To create awareness about the importance of accessibility and equality in education.
- To equip future educators with the knowledge and skills needed to foster inclusivity in classrooms and communities.

❖ Significance:

Inclusive education is vital in ensuring that every individual, regardless of their abilities, has access to quality education in an equitable environment. This workshop aimed to inspire and empower future educators to embrace inclusivity and develop strategies to accommodate diverse learning needs.

❖ Contents:

The workshop on Inclusive Education, organized by ADAPT (Able Disable All People Together) on 25th January 2025, provided an in-depth understanding of the importance of inclusivity in education. Held at the ADAPT Center in Bandra West, the session was led by Ms. Rekha Vijaykar, an experienced advocate of inclusive education and a key member of ADAPT.

Ms. Vijaykar addressed essential topics such as the concept of inclusive education, the barriers faced by individuals with disabilities, and practical strategies to overcome those challenges. She emphasized the critical role of educators in fostering inclusion within classrooms and shared real-life examples of successful inclusive practices. Her engaging presentation and interactive discussions allowed participants to connect theoretical knowledge with practical application.

❖ Learning Outcomes:

The workshop enabled the participants, particularly the F.Y.B.Ed students of Humera Khan College of Education, to develop a deeper understanding of Inclusive Education. Under the guidance of Ms. Rekha Vijaykar, students gained awareness of the challenges faced by individuals with disabilities and learned effective strategies to create inclusive and accessible learning environments.

The session inspired future educators to take proactive steps toward fostering equality and acceptance in their classrooms and communities. Overall, the workshop, enriched by Ms. Vijaykar's expertise, equipped the participants with valuable knowledge and tools to promote inclusivity in their professional journey.
