CONTENT: -

The Creative Writing Competition at Humera Khan College of Education was a great opportunity for students to showcase their creativity and express their thoughts through writing with guidelines. The event started at 11:15 a.m. and concluded at 12:15 p.m., allowing participants to explore topics like An Invention That Can Transform the World, The Hardest Thing I Have Ever Done, and Obstacles Are What You See When You Take Your Eyes Off the Goal. It was an engaging and inspiring experience, where students had the chance to improve their writing skills while recognizing the power of words in shaping ideas. This competition encouraged intellectual growth and creativity, leaving a lasting impact on everyone involved.

LEARNING OUTCOMES: -

It brought valuable learning experiences beyond the actual writing process as part of this competition. Refining writing, the students got better at their ability to write ideas clearly and effectively and to do so in a creative way. In addition, the creative process of producing stories and essays helped participants acquire a deeper knowledge of narrative structures, character building, and themes. The event also encouraged critical thinking, as students were challenged to interpret and reflect on various themes in innovative ways. Most importantly, the event helped students build confidence in their writing abilities, empowering them to continue pursuing their literary passions and apply their creative skills in various academic and professional contexts.
