Group 3 :Group 3 did an outstanding job showcasing ancient healing practices through Siddha and Naturopathy. Their skit was insightful and effectively highlighted the timeless wisdom and holistic approaches of these traditional systems.

The participants impressed the judges by there innovative way of presenting INDIAN KNOWLEDGE SYSTEM

LEARNING Outcomes:

It helps students gain a deeper understanding of India's rich and diverse knowledge systems, including ancient sciences, philosophy, literature, and arts. This encourages critical thinking and reflection on the relevance of traditional knowledge in modern education. Through creative expression, students improve their public speaking, performance, and teamwork skills while communicating important ideas. The competition also hones research skills as students gather and present information on Indian knowledge systems. Additionally, it fosters cultural awareness and sensitivity, helping students appreciate the significance of India's heritage. By collaborating in teams, participants develop leadership, coordination, and collaboration abilities. The experience provides pedagogical insights into integrating Indian knowledge systems into modern classrooms, boosting students' confidence and self-expression as they perform and engage in public speaking. Overall, the competition enhances both educational and personal growth, equipping future educators with valuable skills.
