1ST MAY, 2025

Vision: Shaping the pupil teacher to shoulder the responsibility of shaping the future youth of the nation.

Venue: Humera khan college of education

Date: 30/4/2025

Objectives:

1. Commemorating the formation of the state: Maharashtra Day marks the creation of the state of Maharashtra on 1st May 1960, after the division of the Bombay State on linguistic lines.
2. Honoring Marathi identity and culture: The day celebrates the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and contributions of the Marathi-speaking population.
3. Promoting unity and pride among citizens: It encourages a sense of state pride, unity, and patriotism among the people of Maharashtra.
4. Recognizing achievements: It's a day to highlight the social, economic, scientific, and cultural progress of the state.

Significance: Maharashtra Day, celebrated on 1st May, holds great significance as it marks the formation of the state of Maharashtra in 1960, following the Samyukta Maharashtra Movement that demanded a separate state for Marathi-speaking people. The day honors the cultural identity, heritage, and unity of the people of Maharashtra, while also remembering the sacrifices and efforts of the leaders who played a key role in the state's formation. It serves as a reminder of the state's progress in various fields and instills a sense of pride, patriotism, and solidarity among its citizens.
