Introduction:

The farewell function for the B.Ed batch of 2023–25 was held on 19th July 2025 at Humera Khan College of Education with immense excitement and heartfelt emotions. The event aimed to give a warm and respectful goodbye to the outgoing students while celebrating their journey and contributions to the college. It was a blend of cultural performances, interactive games, emotional speeches, and cheerful moments that created a memorable experience for everyone involved.

Objectives:

- To acknowledge and celebrate the journey of the outgoing batch.
- To provide a platform for students to express gratitude and share memories.
- To encourage participation in collaborative and creative activities.
- To foster a sense of closure, unity, and appreciation among students and staff.
- To strengthen bonds between juniors, seniors, and faculty members.

Significance:

- It provided emotional closure for the students and a chance to look back on their growth.
- Strengthened the teacher-student relationship through shared reflections.
- Gave students a platform to showcase their talents in a relaxed, celebratory environment.
- Created a positive and respectful farewell culture for future batches.
- Allowed informal interaction and built a sense of belonging and college pride.
- Captured memories through dedicated photo booth areas with fun props and group photography.

Content:

The event began at 1:00 PM with light refreshments and snacks, allowing everyone to settle in and socialize. The program officially commenced with the Lighting of the Lamp, symbolizing the light of knowledge and marking an auspicious beginning. This was followed by the Mumbai University Song, instilling a sense of institutional pride. A Prayer was then offered, seeking blessings for the bright future of the outgoing students.

The host welcomed all guests with a Welcome Speech, setting the tone for the event. The atmosphere turned poetic and nostalgic with a session of Shayari, expressing emotions and cherished memories in a heartfelt manner.

Next came the engaging segment of games and performances. The first game, “Let’s Play Squid Game,” was a fun twist on popular challenges that kept the energy high. “Pass the Mic” offered an open platform where students and teachers shared spontaneous messages, laughter, and stories. This was followed by a “Beautiful singing, where students went back to their B.Ed training days, creating a lively and interactive environment. A dance performance by juniors added energy and sparkle to the event.

In the “Guess the Movie” segment, participants enjoyed identifying movies through fun clues. This was followed by another word-based activity, “Letter Trap,” which tested creativity and quick thinking.

A special farewell video was presented, showcasing memorable moments of the batch through photos, clips, and interviews — bringing smiles, laughter, and a few tears. The moment became even more special with gift distribution, where each outgoing student received a token of appreciation from the faculty and juniors.

A unique and touching activity titled “Words with Heart” was conducted, where heartfelt messages were given by our Professors and Principal ma’am, making the seniors feel appreciated and loved.

To add more joy, a photo booth was set up at the venue, filled with colourful props, banners, and selfie corners. Students and teachers took group photos and captured memories to cherish forever.

Before the program concluded, teachers took the stage and shared their thoughts, experiences, and best wishes for the students of batch 2023-2025. Their emotional words added grace, warmth, and closure to the event. The program ended with a Vote of Thanks, expressing gratitude to all organizers, participants, and guests. The day concluded on a patriotic note with the National Anthem.

Reflection:

The farewell function was a truly heartwarming and memorable event. It beautifully balanced fun and emotion, offering students a chance to celebrate their time at the college while expressing gratitude to mentors and friends. The thoughtful inclusion of games, music, and speeches created a joyful yet respectful atmosphere. The farewell video and words shared by teachers added emotional depth, while the photo booth captured unforgettable moments of togetherness. Participating in the event made me value relationships, teamwork, and shared memories more deeply. It was a perfect send-off, filled with love, laughter, and lasting impressions.
