INTRODUCTION:

The Humera Khan College of Education organised the B.Ed. Semester 3 Orientation Programme under the IQAC Cell on 11th August 2025 at 9:30 a.m. in Classroom 501. The session was conducted by Dr. Varsha Maru with the aim of welcoming students into the new semester, introducing the subjects and faculty members, and providing guidance on academic expectations. The orientation also served as an interactive platform where students could address queries and prepare themselves for the upcoming academic term.

OBJECTIVE:

1. To familiarize students with the Semester 3 subjects and course structure.
2. To provide clarity on marks distribution and assessment criteria.
3. To introduce the faculty members teaching various subjects.
4. To prepare students for effective academic planning for the semester.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE DAY:

1. Provides a clear roadmap for the semester ahead.
2. Strengthens the connection between students and faculty.
3. Builds awareness about the evaluation process and academic expectations.
4. Encourages a proactive and disciplined approach to learning.

CONTENT:

The orientation programme began with Dr. Varsha Maru warmly welcoming all students to the new semester. She started by introducing the subjects for Semester 3, giving a brief idea of the content and objectives of each subject. She clearly mentioned the names of subject teachers, so students would know whom to approach for guidance. Following this, she provided a detailed explanation of the internal and external marks distribution for each subject, ensuring that students understood the weightage of assignments and exams. She also reminded students about the importance of maintaining attendance, timely submission of assignments, and active participation in all academic activities.

Towards the end, an interactive Q&A session was held, where students could freely seek clarifications about the syllabus and examinations. Dr. Varsha Maru addressed each query with patience and clarity, ensuring no confusion remained.

The session concluded on an encouraging note, motivating students to embrace Semester III with dedication, positivity, and enthusiasm for the teaching profession.

LEARNING OUTCOMES:

By the end of the orientation, students had a clear understanding of the Semester III curriculum, subject allocation, and evaluation methods. They became familiar with their faculty members and understood the importance of regular attendance and active engagement. The Q&A session helped clarify individual doubts, leaving students confident and well-prepared to begin the new semester with focus and enthusiasm.
