- Boosted confidence in handling co-teaching and collaborative classroom experiences.

Content:

Humera Khan College of Education organised an orientation program at HKCE Classroom. The orientation began with a warm welcome from Dr. Avani Kanakia and Asst. Prof. Shenaz Khan, has introduced the internship plan in detail. The internship will be conducted for a duration of 11 weeks, starting from 18th August to 22nd December. Students are required to prepare 10 lessons based on Method 1, out of which one lesson will be experiential learning based on Gandhiji's method of teaching, two lessons will be theme-based, and three lessons will be co-teaching with schoolteachers. Both professors explained these requirements clearly and shared valuable insights on effective lesson planning and classroom management. They also provided step-by-step guidance on maintaining the reflection file, emphasizing the importance of self-assessment and critical reflection after each lesson. The session was highly interactive, allowing students to clarify doubts and understand the practical aspects of their teaching practice.

Conclusion:

The orientation session proved to be highly informative and motivating. With detailed explanations and practical tips from Dr. Avani Kanakia and Asst. Prof. Shenaz Khan, students
