INDUCTION PROGRAM REPORT (BATCH 2025–2027)

Venue: Auditorium

Date: 29th September 2025

Time: 10:30 a.m. – 12:00 p.m.

Institution: Humera Khan College of Education (HKCE)

Objectives

The primary objectives of the Induction Program were:

To warmly welcome the FYB.Ed students (Batch 2025–2027) into the HKCE family.

To familiarize the new students with the college environment, academic structure, faculty, and institutional culture.

To provide a platform for interaction between senior and junior students, encouraging a sense of community and peer bonding.

To set a positive and motivating tone for the beginning of the B.Ed journey.

Significance

The Induction Program holds special significance as it marks the transition of students into a professional educational journey. It serves to:

Ease the initial anxiety of freshers by offering them a supportive and informative start.

Introduce the values, mission, and expectations of the institution. Highlight the importance of both academic and co-curricular engagement in shaping future educators. Build connections that promote collaboration and mentorship throughout the academic years.

Content

The Induction Program unfolded with a series of meaningful and engaging segments:

Prayer Assembly: The event began with a serene and reflective prayer session, creating a peaceful and positive environment.

Introduction of Faculty Members: Faculty members were introduced to the students. They shared insights about the curriculum, college policies, co-curricular opportunities, and their own roles in guiding the student journey.

Skit by SYB.Ed Students – "B.Ed Ki Kahani": A lighthearted and relatable skit performed by second-year students showcased common experiences and lessons from the B. Ed course, drawing smiles and laughter while also sharing valuable insights.

Introduction by FYB.Ed Students: Each new student took a moment to introduce themselves, fostering an atmosphere of openness and camaraderie.

Experience Sharing by Seniors: Senior students narrated their personal B. Ed journeys, offering advice, encouragement, and practical tips for succeeding in the course.

Interactive Activity: A fun and energetic activity conducted by the SYB.Ed students helped break the ice and further enhanced peer bonding.

Campus Tour: The program concluded with a guided campus tour led by senior students. Freshers were introduced to key facilities and areas of the college, ensuring they felt more at home in their new environment.

Conclusion

The Induction Program for the FYB.Ed Batch 2025–2027 at HKCE was a memorable and heartwarming event. It successfully met its objectives by creating a welcoming atmosphere, encouraging student interaction, and offering meaningful guidance. The involvement of both faculty and senior students contributed to the program's success, making the freshers feel supported and inspired. This program has undoubtedly set a positive and enthusiastic tone for the academic year ahead.
