Report on Special Campaign 5.0: “Cleanliness is Next to Godliness”

Introduction:

Humera Khan College of Education organized the Special Campaign 5.0 under the theme “Cleanliness is Next to Godliness,” inspired by the initiative of the Department of Justice. The campaign aimed to spread awareness about the importance of maintaining cleanliness and hygiene in our surroundings. It served as a reminder that a clean environment leads to a healthy and positive mindset. The college premises were beautifully cleaned and organized through the collective efforts of the principal, faculty members, and the students of F.Y. B.Ed. and S.Y. B.Ed. The activity not only focused on physical cleanliness but also encouraged everyone to develop cleanliness as a personal habit and social responsibility. Through this campaign, the students realized the significance of contributing to the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan and promoting the message that cleanliness reflects inner discipline and respect for the environment.

Objectives:

- To spread awareness about the importance of cleanliness and hygiene among students and faculty members.
- To maintain a clean, organized, and pleasant environment within the college premises.
- To encourage teamwork and social responsibility among teacher trainees.
- To contribute towards the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan initiative through active participation and awareness.

Significance:

Cleanliness is a key aspect of personal discipline and social development. The campaign reinforced the idea that maintaining cleanliness is not merely a physical act but a moral and spiritual practice that enhances the learning atmosphere. By participating in such initiatives, students understood their role as responsible citizens and future educators who can inspire similar values in schools and society.

Content:

Under the valuable guidance and leadership of Dr. Varsha Maru, I/C Principal of Humera Khan College of Education, the faculty members, along with students from the F.Y. B.Ed. and S.Y. B.Ed. programs, enthusiastically participated in the cleanliness drive. The campaign included cleaning classrooms, the library, corridors, and common areas, as well as organizing learning materials and notice boards to make the environment more appealing and organized. Students also cleaned the surrounding garden area and collected waste materials responsibly. In addition, they created colourful posters and catchy slogans emphasizing the importance of hygiene and cleanliness. The collective efforts of the students and staff not only made the college premises cleaner but also filled the participants with a sense of satisfaction, unity, and accomplishment.

Learning Outcomes:

Through the Special Campaign 5.0, students gained a deeper understanding of the value of cleanliness in maintaining both physical and mental well-being. They learned the importance of contributing positively to their surroundings and developed a sense of social responsibility and cooperation. The activity fostered teamwork, discipline, and leadership among the B.Ed. students, preparing them to be role models for future generations. Moreover, students realized that cleanliness is not limited to physical spaces but extends to one's attitude and behaviour towards society and the environment.
