Batch: F.Y.B.Ed. SEM 1

Subject: Gender, School and Society

Activity: Poster competition on Gender Issues

Timing: 12:00 pm

Faculty and Student Participation

The competition was graced by the presence of I/C Principal Dr. Varsha Maru, Dr. Sandhya Sarwade, Dr. Avani Kanakia. The presence and support of the faculty created a positive learning atmosphere and motivated the participants further. The event saw active and enthusiastic participation from all B.Ed student-teachers.

Introduction

The Academic Committee of Humera Khan College of Education organized a Poster Competition on the theme "Gender Equality" as part of the IC1 course Gender, School and Society. The competition served as a creative platform for student-teachers to engage deeply with issues related to gender justice, equality, and inclusiveness. Through visual expression and critical thinking, participants were encouraged to explore how gender roles, stereotypes, and biases shape everyday life as well as educational environments. The event not only fostered awareness and sensitivity toward gender-related concerns but also promoted the development of socially responsible and reflective future educators.

Objective of the Event

The main objectives of the competition were:

To enhance awareness about gender-related issues among pupil teachers.

To encourage critical thinking and creativity in expressing ideas on gender equality.

To promote sensitivity, respect, and inclusiveness among future educators.

To give students a platform to visually communicate social messages.

Significance of the Poster Competition*

The Poster Competition played an important role in developing gender awareness among student-teachers. It encouraged them to think critically about gender issues, express ideas creatively, and understand the importance of promoting equality in educational spaces. The activity also strengthened communication skills through poster explanations and helped future teachers build a more inclusive and sensitive mindset.

Event Highlights

The event began with a brief introduction by the Course Coordinator, Dr. Sandhya Sarwade, who emphasized the role of teachers in shaping a gender-inclusive learning environment. Participants were then given time to display their posters in the classroom.

Each student prepared an original poster based on sub-themes such as:

Group 4: Violence against women

Group 5: Gender Equality

Group 6: Women's Place in Society

Group 7: Women's Empowerment

Group 8: Transgender Issues

Each participant was invited to explain their poster. This segment encouraged reflective thinking, communication skills, and confidence.

Outcome of the event

The poster competition successfully engaged the student-teachers in meaningful reflection on gender-related issues. Participants displayed high levels of creativity and sensitivity. The event fulfilled its purpose of spreading awareness and strengthening the college's commitment to gender equality.

The event concluded with closing remarks by Dr. Varsha Maru, I/C Principal, who appreciated the students for their thoughtful participation.
