REPORT ON INTERNATIONAL DAY OF EDUCATION & MARATHI LANGUAGE CONSERVATION

DATE: 24rd January 2026

VENUE: 501

TIME: 2:30PM TO 3:30PM

INTRODUCTION

The International Day of Education, observed on 24th January, highlights the importance of education in promoting knowledge, equality, and social development. Education also plays a key role in preserving culture and language. Marathi, as a rich and historic language, represents the cultural heritage of Maharashtra. Conserving the Marathi language helps strengthen students' understanding, expression, and connection to their roots. Celebrating this day along with Marathi language conservation encourages learners to value education through their mother tongue and respect linguistic diversity.

OBJECTIVES

- To create awareness about the importance of education in promoting peace, development, and lifelong learning.
- To highlight the role of education in preserving linguistic and cultural heritage.
- To promote respect and pride for the Marathi language among student teachers.
- To encourage active participation, expression, and communication skills among F.Y. B.Ed. students.
- To integrate global educational values with regional language conservation.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THE PROGRAMME

- International Education Day emphasizes education as a fundamental human right and a powerful tool for social transformation.

- Marathi Language Conservation strengthens cultural identity and preserves linguistic diversity.
- Celebrating both occasions together helped students understand the balance between global perspectives and local traditions.
- The programme reinforced the responsibility of future teachers in promoting multilingualism and inclusive education.

EVENT DETAILS

- The programme was jointly organized to commemorate International Education Day and Marathi Language Conservation Day on 24th January 2026.
- The event aimed to highlight the importance of education while promoting the conservation and enrichment of the Marathi language.
- F.Y. B.Ed. students actively participated in the programme with great enthusiasm and discipline.
- Each participant was allotted 5 minutes to read a Marathi article.
- The articles were based on various themes such as the importance of education, social awareness, values in education, women empowerment, and national development.
- The participants read their articles with proper pronunciation, voice modulation, clarity, and expression, demonstrating effective communication skills.
- Dr. Sandhya Sarwade served as the judge for the event and evaluated the participants on parameters such as clarity of reading, pronunciation, confidence, expression, and overall presentation.
- The event was conducted smoothly in a disciplined and well-organized manner.
- The audience listened attentively and appreciated the efforts of the participants, making the programme engaging and meaningful.
- The programme was successfully conducted under the guidance of Asst. Prof. Shana Bano Shaikh, ensuring effective coordination and academic relevance.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Students developed awareness about the global importance of education and its role in nation-building.

- Enhanced appreciation for the Marathi language and its cultural and educational value.
- Improved reading, speaking, and presentation skills among students.
- Developed confidence and active participation in academic and co-curricular activities.
- Strengthened understanding of the teacher's role in promoting linguistic diversity and inclusive education.

CONCLUSION

- The celebration of the International Day of Education through the Marathi Article Reading Competition proved to be a meaningful and enriching experience for F.Y. B.Ed. students. The programme effectively achieved its objectives by enhancing students' reading skills, confidence, and awareness of the importance of education and language, while fostering respect for the mother tongue.
- The event received strong support and encouragement from I/c Principal Dr. Varsha Maru, whose guidance played a vital role in its successful execution. Dr. Sandhya Sarwade, the judge for the competition, appreciated the participants' efforts and offered motivating feedback, encouraging them to further improve their pronunciation, expression, and overall presentation skills.
- Overall, the programme contributed significantly to the academic, professional, and personal development of the students. The event concluded on a positive and inspiring note, leaving a lasting impression on the participants and reinforcing the true spirit of the International Day of Education.
