Introduction:

Humera Khan College of Education, Oshiwara, Jogeshwari (W), Mumbai-400102, organized a Food Donation Drive under DLLE activities during the holy month, encouraging students to contribute towards helping the needy. The initiative was conducted under the guidance of Event Incharge Dr. Avani Kanakia, I/C Principal Dr. Varsha Maru, and was efficiently coordinated by the Extension Student Manager, Ms. Aqsa Jairajpuri and Ms. Lubna Shaikh.

As part of this drive, DLLE Warriors were requested to donate food to underprivileged individuals, capture the moments through photographs, and submit them via a Google Form link within the given time limit, i.e., till 15th March. The activity witnessed enthusiastic participation from pupil teachers who actively engaged in this noble cause and contributed to spreading kindness and compassion in society.

Objectives:

1. To encourage students to develop empathy and social responsibility.
2. To promote the value of sharing and helping the needy during the holy month.
3. To involve students in community-based activities under DLLE.
4. To spread awareness about food donation and reduce food wastage.
5. To nurture a sense of compassion, kindness, and humanitarian values among students.

Significance:

The Food Donation Drive served as a meaningful initiative that connected students with real-life social responsibilities beyond the classroom. It provided an opportunity for pupil teachers to actively participate in community service and understand the importance of helping the less fortunate. During the holy month, the act of donating food holds great spiritual and moral value. This initiative not only helped in addressing hunger but also instilled a sense of gratitude and compassion among students. By directly engaging with the needy, students developed a deeper understanding of societal inequalities and their role as responsible citizens.

The activity also strengthened the bond between education and social service, which is a key objective of DLLE programs. It encouraged students to become empathetic individuals and future educators who can inspire others to contribute positively to society.

Content:

The Food Donation Drive was conducted as an individual activity where students were asked to donate food items such as home-cooked meals, packaged food, or essentials to needy individuals in their nearby areas. Students personally participated in distributing food to the underprivileged, ensuring that the act was carried out with dignity and respect.

Participants captured photographs while donating food as a part of documentation and submitted them through the provided Google Form link. The activity was conducted over a period of time, allowing students to choose suitable moments to perform the act of kindness.

The drive highlighted the importance of sharing resources and reducing food wastage. It also emphasized that even small contributions can make a significant difference in someone's life. The simplicity of the activity made it accessible and impactful for all participants.

Learning Outcomes:

Through this activity, students developed a strong sense of empathy and social awareness. They learned the importance of helping those in need and understood the value of kindness and generosity. The Food Donation Drive enhanced their sense of responsibility towards society and encouraged them to actively participate in community service. It also helped in building moral values such as compassion, gratitude, and respect for others. Students gained confidence in engaging with people from different backgrounds and developed a humanitarian outlook. Overall, the activity contributed to shaping socially responsible, caring, and aware individuals who are prepared to make a positive impact in society.
