Date: 07/03/2026

Time: 10:00 am onwards

Venue: F.Y.B. Ed 501 classroom

Introduction

International Women's Day is celebrated every year on 8th March to recognize the achievements, contributions, and strength of women in society. It is a day to promote gender equality, respect, and empowerment of women in all fields.

Humera Khan College of Education celebrated International Women's Day with great enthusiasm and respect. The program aimed to highlight the importance of women in society and inspire students to value equality, leadership, and confidence

Participants

The celebration witnessed enthusiastic participation from the entire college community. The program was conducted in the presence of respected I/C Principal Dr. Varsha Maru, along with esteemed faculty members Dr. Sandhya Ma'am, Dr. Avani Kanakia, and Professor Shenaz Khan. Students of the F.Y.B.Ed batch actively participated in organizing the program. They contributed as hosts, speakers, performers, and activity coordinators, making the celebration successful and meaningful.

Objectives

- To create awareness about the importance of Women's Day.
- To recognize and appreciate the contribution of women in society.
- To encourage confidence, leadership, and empowerment among students.
- To promote gender equality and respect for women.
- To inspire students through educational and cultural activities.

Significance

International Women's Day holds great significance as it celebrates the achievements and contributions of women in various fields such as education, science, politics, and social development.

For future educators, understanding the importance of women empowerment is essential.

Celebrating Women's Day in educational institutions encourages respect, equality, and motivation among students to support women's rights and opportunities.

Content

The Women's Day celebration was organized in a well-structured manner. The program began with the University Song, followed by the Prayer and the Pledge, creating a respectful atmosphere.

After this, students delivered speeches on women empowerment in different languages, highlighting the strength, achievements, and role of women in society.

A documentary on women empowerment was also presented, which inspired the audience and showed the struggles and successes of women across the world.

The program continued with an interactive activity related to women empowerment, where students actively participated and expressed their views on the importance of women in society.

One of the highlights of the celebration was the dance performance, which added joy and enthusiasm to the program and beautifully reflected the theme of Women's Day.

The event created a positive environment and encouraged students to respect, appreciate, and empower women in every aspect of life.
