REPORT ON ANNUAL DAY 2026

Institution: Humera Khan College of Education, Jogeshwari (W)

Theme: India: A Symphony of Cultures

Date: 28th March 2026

Time: 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

INTRODUCTION

The Annual Day Celebration of Oriental College of Education and Research (OCER), Andheri (W) and Humera Khan College of Education (HKCE), Jogeshwari (W) was organized on 28th March 2026 from 5:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. The theme of the event was "India: A Symphony of Cultures," which highlighted the unity in diversity of the country. The celebration was designed to showcase the rich cultural heritage, traditions, and artistic expressions of different regions of India, bringing together students and faculty in a spirit of harmony and cultural pride.

SIGNIFICANCE

- The event celebrated the cultural diversity and unity of India through various performances.
- It provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and creativity.
- It encouraged teamwork, coordination, and participation among students.
- It helped in building confidence and a stage presence among future educators.
- It strengthened the bond between students, teachers, and management through collective celebration.

CONTENT

- Inaugural Ceremony

The program commenced with a warm introduction, followed by the University Song. The ceremonial lighting of the lamp, accompanied by a prayer song, marked the auspicious beginning of the event. This traditional ritual symbolised the dispelling of darkness and the pursuit of knowledge.

- Welcome and Formal Proceedings

A graceful welcome dance set a festive tone for the evening. The dignitaries, including the management, Chief Guest, and principals, were formally introduced. The Principal

- ❖ Powada: The program began with a Powada performance by the First-Year students. This traditional Marathi art form, known for its powerful narration and energetic delivery, depicted the importance of the Marathi Language. The performers captivated the audience with their expressive storytelling, rhythmic beats, and spirited presentation.
- ❖ Nashid: Following this was a Nashid performance, also presented by First Year students. This soulful musical rendition created a serene and devotional atmosphere. The harmonious voices and meaningful lyrics reflected spiritual unity and added a calming contrast to the high-energy performances.
- ❖ Shayari and Poetry Recitation: The stage then transitioned into a literary segment featuring Shayari and Poetry Recitation by both First Year and Second Year students. The students eloquently expressed themes of culture, unity, emotions, and patriotism through their words. Their confident delivery and creative compositions resonated deeply with the audience.
- ❖ Mushaira: Next was the Mushaira, a traditional poetic symposium, where students presented poetic expressions formally and engagingly. The rhythmic flow of words, combined with expressive recitation, brought alive the essence of classical Indian literary traditions and was appreciated with enthusiastic applause.
- ❖ Dance Performance based on Indian Festivals: The cultural momentum continued with a Dance Performance based on Indian Festivals by Second Year students. This segment was a visual treat, portraying various festivals such as the Celebration of Ganesh Chaturthi, Makar Sankranti, Navratri, and Unity in Diversity through vibrant choreography, colorful costumes, and energetic music. The performance beautifully highlighted the joy, unity, and cultural richness associated with Indian celebrations.
- ❖ Fashion Show: "Roots and Rhythms of India.": The grand finale of the cultural program was the Fashion Show titled "Roots and Rhythms of India." First and Second Year students showcased traditional attire from different states of India, representing the country's diverse heritage. Each participant walked the stage with confidence, displaying regional costumes, accessories, and cultural identity. The narration accompanying the show provided insights into the significance of each
