Introduction

World Book Day and Copyright Day were celebrated with great enthusiasm and active participation to spread awareness about the importance of books, reading habits, and intellectual property rights. The celebration aimed to encourage students to develop a love for reading and understand the significance of respecting original ideas, creative works, and authors' contributions to society. Books play a vital role in enhancing knowledge, imagination, and critical thinking, while copyright protection ensures that creators receive recognition and respect for their work.

The event provided an educational platform where students learned about the value of literature and the importance of preserving creativity and originality in today's world. The celebration combined informative and creative activities to make learning engaging and meaningful. Students actively participated in presentations, discussions, and competitions, which helped in developing their knowledge, communication skills, and creativity.

To make the event more interactive and enjoyable, a Poster Making Competition was also organized, providing students with an opportunity to express their ideas artistically and showcase their talents. The celebration successfully created awareness and inspired students to appreciate books, knowledge, and creative expression while promoting teamwork and active participation.

Participants

The program witnessed active participation and enthusiastic involvement from the entire college community. The event was graced by the presence and guidance of esteemed faculty member Shenaz Khan Ma'am. The core of the celebration involved the spirited participation of students from F.Y.B.Ed, who took on various roles as organizers, performers, and attentive audience members.

Objectives

- To create awareness about the importance of books and reading habits.
- To educate students about copyright laws and respecting original work.
- To encourage creativity and participation through engaging activities.

- To provide a platform for students to showcase their artistic talents.
- To develop knowledge and awareness through interactive learning.

Significance

The celebration of World Book Day and Copyright Day is significant as it helps students understand the importance of books, reading habits, and intellectual property rights. Books play a vital role in improving knowledge, imagination, communication skills, and critical thinking abilities. Such celebrations encourage students to develop a love for reading and create awareness about the value of literature in everyday life.

The observance of Copyright Day also teaches students to respect originality and understand the importance of protecting the rights of authors and creators. The activities conducted during the event promoted creativity, teamwork, and active participation, making the celebration both educational and meaningful.

Content

The program was conducted smoothly and began with an introduction highlighting the significance of World Book Day and Copyright Day. Students shared informative content about the importance of books and discussed the role of copyright in protecting the rights of authors and creators.

The event responsibilities were efficiently distributed among the students to ensure successful execution of the program. PPT preparation was managed by Miss Nikhat and Miss Zoya, while Anchoring was conducted by Miss Reshma and Miss Kulsum. Two activities were organized. One activity was organized by Miss Maryam and Miss Zeba, and second Activity was handled by Miss Khushi and Miss Sneha. The Board Decoration was creatively done by Miss Fatima, Miss Tasmiya, Miss Ayesha, and Miss Samsunnisa. which added attractiveness to the celebration.

To make the event more engaging and interactive, a Poster Making Competition was also organized. Students enthusiastically participated and created meaningful posters showcasing themes related to books, reading, and creativity. The activity provided students with a platform to express their artistic ideas and talents.
