In Loving Memory and Commemoration of Late Prof. Javed Khan

Date: 1 October 2026

Venue: Auditorium, H.K. Campus 4th Floor

Organised by: Maharashtra Educational Society

In Collaboration with: H. K. College of Pharmacy and H K Institute of Management
Studies & Research

Introduction

The Founder's Day Celebration, commemorating the life and contribution of Late Prof. Javed Khan sir, was organised on 1st October 2026 at Auditorium, H.K. Campus. The programme was organised to remember the Founder with respect and gratitude and to reflect upon his contribution towards the growth of educational institutions under the Maharashtra Educational Society.

The celebration was conducted through a brief commemorative programme followed by a Blood Donation Campaign, providing a meaningful opportunity for students, faculty members and other participants to pay tribute to the Founder through a socially responsible community-service initiative.

Programme Proceedings

The programme commenced at 11:00 a.m. with an introduction by Mr. Hamza Tajani, who welcomed the dignitaries, faculty members and students and briefly explained the purpose of the Founder's Day celebration.

At 11:05 a.m., the formal inauguration took place with the lighting of the ceremonial lamp by the members on the dais. The lighting of the lamp symbolised the pursuit of knowledge, service and the values associated with the vision of the Founder.

This was followed by an introduction to the life and contribution of Late Prof. Javed Khan sir, Founder, presented by Dr. Ramya Vikram. She highlighted the Founder's vision and his contribution to the field of education and institutional development.

Dr. Tushar Lokhande addressed the gathering. He spoke about the significance of remembering the Founder and the importance of carrying forward the values of education, service and social responsibility.

Dr. Azeem Khan delivered a commemorative speech. He reflected upon the Founder's contribution and encouraged the students and staff to uphold the spirit of service and commitment towards society.

The formal commemorative programme concluded at approximately 11:30 a.m., after which the Blood Donation Campaign commenced.

Blood Donation Campaign

As a meaningful extension of the Founder's Day celebration, a Blood Donation Campaign was organised in collaboration with H. K. College of Pharmacy. The campaign aimed to create awareness about voluntary blood donation and encourage the spirit of community service among students, faculty members and other eligible participants.

The campaign provided an opportunity for participants to contribute towards an important social cause. The activity also reinforced the values of empathy, compassion, social responsibility and service to humanity.

Participants were guided through the necessary procedures for blood donation, including registration and preliminary screening, followed by the donation process for eligible donors. The organising team ensured that the activity was conducted in a systematic and responsible manner.

Objectives of the Campaign

The Blood Donation Campaign was organised with the following objectives:

1. To commemorate the Founder, Late Prof. Javed Khans, through a meaningful social-service initiative.

2. To create awareness about the importance of voluntary blood donation.
3. To encourage students and staff to participate in community-oriented activities.
4. To promote the values of empathy, compassion and social responsibility.
5. To strengthen collaboration between educational institutions within the Maharashtra Educational Society.
6. To encourage students to become responsible and socially conscious citizens.

Participation and Response

The programme received enthusiastic participation from faculty members, students and members of the organising institutions. The combination of the Founder's Day commemoration with a blood donation initiative gave the celebration a purposeful social dimension.

The participation reflected the willingness of the college community to contribute to society and to translate institutional values into meaningful action.

Conclusion

The Founder's Day Celebration and Blood Donation Campaign held on 1 October 2026 was a respectful and meaningful tribute to the memory of Late Prof. Javed Khan. The commemorative programme provided an opportunity to remember his contribution and educational vision, while the subsequent blood donation campaign transformed the remembrance into an act of social service.

The initiative successfully brought together remembrance, education and community service, reinforcing the message that the values of a Founder can be carried forward through responsible actions that benefit society.

The programme concluded with appreciation to all the dignitaries, faculty members, students, volunteers and participants who contributed to the successful conduct of the celebration and blood donation campaign.
